WHEREAS, We live in a season of alcohol consumption that contributes to violence, traffic fatalities, family instabilities, and child abuse; and,

WHEREAS, We have created a season of easy drug availability via both prescription and over-the-counter medications; and,

WHEREAS, The illicit drug traffic has declared open season on our youth in the schools and on the streets; and,

WHEREAS, The tobacco industry has created a season of glamor directed toward youth surrounding a habit which is a known cancer-producing agent; and,

WHEREAS, The years of youth are a season of learning, experimentation, questioning and development: and,

WHEREAS, This season can be used to promote health and success if these qualities are encouraged to develop unhindered by the use of mind-altering substances:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, hereby declare the week of April 22-28, 1979, as

YOUTH TEMPERANCE EDUCATION WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-eighth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Nine
